THE M. S. C. TEAM DEFEATED THE RED AND WHITE SEXTETTE IN A HARD FOUGHT BATTLE

In Spite of Efforts of McGill Men the Swimming Club Came Out on Top—Frank McGill Starred—Final Score 3-1

MCGILL INTERMEDIATES LOST BY DEFAULT

Capt. Redman Withdrew His Team with Score 8 all to Allow Time for Senior Game

The Seniors nad Intermediates of hard and exciting throughout. Zimmerman starred for the M.S.C. and seemed quite as much at home under water as on top. Frank McGill's play was very keen and he worked hard the whole time. M.S.C. were victorious by 3 to 1.

In the first quarter Zimmerman shot the first goal for M.S.C. There was no further score. In the second quarter M.S.C. scored again, the score at half-time being 2-0 in favour of M.S.C.

There was no score in the third quarter ducking and wrestling matches were the feature of the game in this quarter and both teams played one man short for a minute.

In the fourth quarter F. McGill shot a very difficult goal for McGill and Zimmerman again scored for M.S.C.

During this quarter a man from each side spent two minutes of his time resting on the side of the tank. The line up was as follows:

MCGILL	M.S.C.
Goal	McKay McReady
Defence	Trapp Lyons
Defence	Williamson Wilson
Centre	Thom Darling
Forwards	Hadley Silver
In the Senior game the play was

WILL SEND SILVERWARE PROMPTLY, THE TENOR OF FRIENDLY MESSAGE FROM VARSITY

Telegram from Dr. Darton Received by the Daily Yesterday Satisfactorily Clears up Misunderstanding in Regard to Ownership of Cup

WILL THE CUP ARRIVE IN TIME FOR BANQUET?

Varsity has no Desire to Detract from McGill's Brilliant and Well Deserved Victory

The temporary misunderstanding which has existed for the past few days with regard to possession of pionship trophies that in the event of a team's winning for three successive years, the trophy becomes their property. However, in this case there was no such arrangement and the prompt manner in which the Varsity executive corrected their mistake reflects great credit on that body and is in accord with the sportsmanlike attitude which has always been a feature of Toronto University athletics. Owing to the delay in sending the cup, however, it is doubtful if the miniature presentation cups will be ready in time for the banquet on Saturday evening, but it is just possible that they may be rushed through, as Birks already have the order for them.

Editor, McGill Daily:
Sorry regarding newspaper items about Yates' Cup. Will send cup as soon as same is cleaned. There was really no deed of gift with the cup, but as Dr. Yates notifies me that it was meant for a perpetual cup I am directed by our directorate to send cup back at once. Varsity has no desire to detract from McGill's brilliant and well-deserved victory.

(SIGNED).
JAS. W. BARTON,
Secy. Athletic Assoc.

The stand taken by the Varsity directorate was a very natural one as there was no deed of gift attached

Nice People

A story which is declared to be strictly true is told in "Public Opinion" by a high official in North Nigeria, where, though it is British, cannibalism still exists.

A native chief was found dead and the district commissioner an Englishman, acting as coroner, summoned a jury of twelve natives to hold an inquest. The jury being unable to come to a decision, the coroner locked them up and went to lunch. When he came back he found that the jury, who were also hungry, had eaten the deceased. He wrote to the Chief Commissioner: "Kindly send instructions for my next step, as the Proclamation does not seem to provide for this incident."

The Sun Life of Canada will not insure North Nigerians.

To Be Built On Many Dominion Reserves

In order to protect and administer the Dominion Forest Reserves to the best advantage, they are being subdivided into ranger districts and houses are being built at strategic points for the use of the rangers in charge. The first of such houses to be occupied on the Duck Mountain Forest Reserve is located at Madge Lake, a few miles from Kamsack, Sask.

Madge Lake is a beautiful, island-studded sheet of water, covering seven square miles, and this ranger-dwelling is picturesquely placed on its south shore. It is a comfortable house, well planned and well lighted, containing living rooms, as well as an office. It will be painted a dark green with white trimmings.

The trail from this ranger station to Kamsack will next year be widened and otherwise improved. This will benefit the ranger, convenience the public who have forest business to transact, and induce an increasing number of people to enjoy the many delights of a summer outing at Madge Lake.

The ranger at this station has direct charge of some two hundred and thirty square miles of highly valuable, young second-growth spruce and poplar forest, and his central object and work will be to safeguard it from fire by every possible means, so that in two or three decades it may yield welcome and abundant supplies of fuel and lumber to the dwellers on the prairies.

HAS RECEIVED
ASSENT OF COUNCIL

McGill's Amateur Entertainment is Now an Assured Fact—End of January or First of February Probable Date—Undergraduates Offer
Hearty Assistance

The Students' Council have decided to continue the vaudeville Entertainment as in other years, and to that end have placed Mr. T. M. Hamer, of Sci. '13, in charge of the affair. The remainder of the committee have not as yet been appointed, but no doubt, an announcement to this effect will be published soon.

Mr. Hamer, when seen by a 'Daily' reporter yesterday afternoon, was very enthusiastic about the outcome of this year's show. "They have given me plenty of time" he said, "and that already gives the show this year, a great advantage over those of past seasons."

Mr. Hamer then spoke about the talent around McGill, and expressed a desire to announce, through the columns of the Daily, that he wanted to hear, or see, all or any persons, who either have theatrical ability or know who have, as soon as possible.

Now here is a chance for all the budding playwrights and actors—not to mention the actresses—who desire to set forth their talents. There are plenty of chances and if you have an act, or wish to go in some act, please communicate with Mr. Hamer, or leave a note for him either in the Engineering Building or Strathcona Hall as soon as possible. This entertainment will certainly be worth while and the "Daily" hopes that all actors, actresses, musicians, clowns, etc., will come forward immediately, and help "Thirsty" Hamer to produce the best entertainment of years.

HOCKEY PRACTICE.

Tuesday night's gym practice was the best attended this year. There were over forty men in uniform. This speaks well for our hockey enthusiasm as the Christmas exams are little over a week off. Coach Roberts put the men through a strenuous hour's work and was well pleased with the condition they are showing. Capt. Rankin, Hughes, Riley, Ken, Demuth and Frank McGill of the old stand-bys, were out while Cakie Smith was speeding at the Colosseum and promises to be in the pink. "Skinch" Scott was over at the gym, so we still have great hope of again seeing him in line as soon as the ice starts. Bill Wilson will also be out with the ice. Among others out were Jack Scott, a younger brother of "Skinch", Skinner, of Arts, '14; Hibbard, Arts, '16; Parsons, Med. '17; Penault, Sci. '16; O'Gorman, Sci. '16; Despatie, Art. '15; Hunter, Med. '17; Montgomery, Med. '17; Pouthier, Sci. '15; Jacques, Arts, '16; Aboinovitch, Arts, '16; Miller, Med. '17; Sid. Fawcett, Sci. '16; McGregor, Med. '17; Brown Sci. '16; Johnson, Sci. '16.

Tonight prophesies ice on the campus rink for next Saturday if the weather remains cold and if this comes true, we will be on the ice before Toronto Varsity as the new artificial rink in Toronto will not be open for fifteen days at the earliest. All up, Thursday, seven to eight.

Governor Brewer of Mississippi recently took a hand in the strike of the classmen of the Mississippi Agricultural and Mechanical Institute, declaring that he would call out the militia to protect loyal students if necessary. About 250 students left the college when President Hightower refused to rescind an order prohibiting men from visiting young women students in class rooms out of study hours. It is reported that the young women did not consider the president's order unfair.—Brown Herald.

The plans for Yale's new stadium announced at a recent mass meeting of that University, provide for a structure that will surpass all others in this country. The stadium will be bowl-shaped, a new feature as to form, and will seat sixty thousand persons, with further accommodation for forty thousand more is desired. The bowl will be sunk twenty feet below the ground, and will extend 35 feet above it. It will cost $300,000. For additional land for athletic purposes, for a club-house, and more track and base-ball stands, $400,000 more will be expended.

The special Thanksgiving Number of the "Christian Science Monitor" was a marvel of newspaper production. It contained 8 separate sections of 12 pages each.

The regular fortnightly meeting of the Y.W.C.A. was held on Wednesday December the fourth, in the Common Room. The topic was the recent student Volunteer Conference held at Peterborough, November the twenty-ninth to December the first. The two delegates, Miss Mount and Miss Keenleyside gave enthusiastic reports and expressed strong hopes that more would attend the Conference next year.

Miss Mount spoke of the general aspect of the Conference, and mentioned some of the noted speakers who addressed the various meetings, among them being President Falconer of Varsity, Dr. McDonald, editor of the Toronto Globe and Dr. Gilmore of McMaster. She told of Dr. McKellar, Medical Missionary in India, who had spoken of her work there and of the need for more women workers among the Zenanas.

Miss Keenleyside then gave her report speaking principally of the thoughts which had left the deepest impressions on the minds of the delegates and of the practical way in which they could be applied. She took up the objections commonly brought forward against missions and refuted them in a convincing manner. She said that the effect of the Conference was to inspire all who heard with fresh zeal to strengthen the work of the Association particularly in regard to missions.

BASKETBALL.

The interyear basketball matches, Seniors vs. Sophs, and Juniors vs. Freshies, were played on Wednesday afternoon. The former resulted in a score of 38-4 in favor of the Seniors the latter 40-0 in the Junior's favor. The last of these matches, in which the Seniors and Juniors will play off for first place, will be held on Saturday.

CONSERVATORIUM

Their Royal Highness The Duke and Duchess of Connaught and Princess Patricia have announced their intention to be present at the orchestral concert to be given by the McGill Conservatorium orchestra in the Royal Victoria College Hall on Tuesday, December the 10th, 1912. Any one wishing an invitation should apply immediately to the Secretary of McGill Conservatorium.

Mr. Merlin Davies of McGill Conservatorium staff will sing at a recital in Valleyfield on the 6th inst. He has also made arrangements to sing at Granby and later on goes to Ottawa to sing in the "Messiah."

THE BIG GAME

(A correct working model for the present-day football story.)

CHAPTER I.

They met after scrimmage. She gazed at him with eyes as mellow as two poached eggs.

"You're my kiddo," he declared. "My affinity!" she murmured, pinning a sunflower on his jersey. From the distance came the strains of a band playing "When I Get You Alone Tonight."

CHAPTER II.

Darkness. The air was full of mysterious night sounds—the cry of the frankfurter merchant, the snore of a nearby cop. They paused at her front gate. The moonlight bathed her face. And he emulated the moon with osculatory energy.

"Be mine, precious," he breathed. "If you win the BIG game," she replied, softly, but firmly.

(Note: The moon is absolutely essential in this chapter. It may be quarter, half or full, with or without clouds passing.)

CHAPTER III.

The football field. A mosaic of changing colors, a shrieking multitude. He makes a touchdown that wins the game, and is carried injured from the field. In the stands a fair girl faints.

(Note change in tense).

CHAPTER IV.

Hospital. Bandaged man in cot. Doctors and trained nurses at bedside. Also beautiful girl. From 4 to 12 tears roll from her eyes, giving the color on her cheeks a cruel test.

"What is your answer, my angel?" comes in a faint voice from the cot.

"As if you did not know!" she sob, kneeling at the bedside, in open defiance of a new silk dress. Doctors and nurses withdrew from room discreetly, to talk of election returns and theatricals.

(Note: Conversation between doctors and nurses may be adjusted to suit the characters of doctors and nurses).

Very Poor Showing of Men at Practices—Does Everybody Think that the Championship is Already Ours

DON'T READ THIS!

A "Daily" reporter made a visit to the Gym last evening to see how the practices were coming along and was very disappointed by the small number of men who were out. Does everybody think they can land the championship again without doing any work for it. We hope not, and express a desire to see more men turn out. Basketball is a game where a team of good men playing together can outplay and outscore a galaxy of stars, and this year at McGill there are plenty of chances. There is a Senior Team in the Intercollegiate League and also an Intermediate—and there are two Junior teams. One for men under nineteen years of age in the Y.M.C.A. League and another without an age limit, in the City and District League. So there hardly appears to be any grounds for complaint on this score, and the "Daily" hopes that the men who have been absent from one or two practices, or who have not been out yet, will turn out, not only for their own benefit, but also for the glory of Old McGill, and help to keep the championship here again for another year. There is plenty of good material around, and with men like "Tiny" Calder, "Duff" Duffield, and Busby around everybody will be sure to be given every chance. All up, now, you basketball men, and show what you can do, for the "Daily" knows you have the goods, and what is more, McGill needs them, so let's hear of a large and enthusiastic practice next time.

The practice yesterday afternoon, was, as has been already stated, very poor in regard to numbers, but the ten or twelve men who were out put in a strenuous workout. Busby was in charge, and the men showed up well. Some who were present were: Hovey, Popham, Conover, Forbes, Wickson, Upham, Hall, Lavery, Busby, Walters, Parsons, Montgomery, and one or two others.

The new practice hours are as follows:—
 Seniors and Intermediates—
 Mondays and Wednesday five to six p.m.
 Juniors—
 Wednesday and Friday, 6:30—7:30 p.m.

INTERCOLLEGiate NOTES

New concrete stands have been constructed at the athletic field of the University of Chicago, the seating capacity of which is nearly 10,000. The full seating capacity of the stands was available for use for the first time last Saturday's game against Minnesota.

The Daily Maroon of the University of Chicago has inaugurated a mustache marathon for Seniors. The race began last Saturday noon, and will end on Friday, December 13. The one with the best and most artistic crop of whiskers will be awarded the prize, which is to be a bound copy of the Daily Maroon for the quarter.

GETTING READY FOR MCGILL.

Princeton began practice for the Varsity hockey team Thanksgiving morning. A large number of candidates reported at the St. Nicholas Rink in New York, and the greater part of the practice was devoted to trying out men for the goal position.

A schedule with Yale, Harvard, McGill University, and a series of games with Cornell during the Christmas holidays has been arranged.

THE RISK WE RUN.

The editor of the Daily Illini, the student newspaper of the University of Illinois, was fined $31.40 for contempt of court last Saturday morning. The trial of the editor was brought about because of an editorial in which he called the grand jury, which attempted to check riots of the students, "A Mock Tribunal."

The jury was investigating the actions of the students at the Walker Opera House on October 20th after the Indian game, when the students broke up the show and caused considerable injury to persons and property. —Brown Herald.

MEDICAL STUDENT

This glimpse of our hero's evolution is going to permit itself some latitude. It is going to be a medical glimpse for medicals only, a technical affair, as it were, and it would be just as well for the reputation of this journal, cursed as it is by its Presbyterian ritualistic respectability if all non-medicals would kindly skip this page, and proceed to the popularised matter on the next page.

You've all done that? Yes. Well to my medical friends I may divulge the subject. It is "Peter Dissecting." When Peter first entered the Bristol Street Anatomy Rooms the odour was nearly made him—

Editor (with agitation): "My dear fellow, is it necessary to tell us all about this odour and—?"

Osteoclast (firmly): — If I am to show you properly the slow-growing medical callousness penetrating and fungating over Master P. G. Peters' mind, such a glimpse as this is necessary. Absolutely.

Ed.: "Yes, butodours?" Must one talk about such things?"

Ost.: Well, odour is an integral part of Practical Anatomy, but we shall call it Odour with a capital, if your compositors will be a little less stingy than usual with the capitals. It gives it substance, almost a personality, so that it may escape notice among the crowd, or at least be less offensive to smoke in Bristol.

Ed. (ingratiatingly): "Well, if you would just try to soften it down a little bit with some high art prose hummery."

Ost.: I'll see. What about this?

When Peter first entered the Bristol Street Rooms the * * * almost made him turn and go out again.

But he didn't, for he entered in the company of a three months fellow, who could handle dissected parts like an undertaker, and took a very natural pride in the same. So Peter stood beside, inspected, fingered, and sniffed, a large greasy scaling forearm until his gorge—

Ed. (with decision): "That is enough, I am sorry but this glimpse must be left out. It is too . . . picturesque."

Ost. (heatedly): Why, what the Bad Man is the difficulty? It is a piece of Bad Word nonsense objecting. Only medicals are reading this.

Ed. *** * . . !

Ost. : ! ! !

Ed. (swallowing hard): "Could you not just tell us what he did day by day, or perhaps what he did in his spaeetime. As you like, of course. I am only making the suggestion."

Ost. : Ah.

On Sundays he rose approximately at 9 a.m. At 9:30 he breakfasted off kippers (when in season). By 11:30 he was set at the outside end of his aunt's pew. At 12:15 he was singing lustily the closing paraphrase. At 1 p.m. he sat down to dinner. At 5 to a sit-down tea. At 8 to a cold-meal supper. At 10 he went to bed. He had generally indigestion on Sundays.

On Mondays he was frequently sick.

On Tuesdays he seldom did anything.

On Wednesdays he was daily thankful that the week was so well advanced, and in the evenings, after 9, used to prowl about the neighbouring terraces in football costume by way of getting into training.

On Thursdays he went to Union Concerts when there were any (as on Thursday last).

On Fridays his aunt took him to the theatre thrice in the term.

On Saturdays the mornings wasted and died, but on those afternoons when no place was found for him in a "B" team, he figured as a spectator at 1st XV. matches, where he affected a singular apathy as to the progress of the match, where he would have loved to cheer the Varsity had he been sure that the people next him would not have stared at him, and where his feet got cold.
